Subject: E-Connect Program for Parents on Preventable Adolescent Health Community on 23rd May 2021

Dear Parents

Greetings of the Day!

Adolescence is a period of life with specific health and developmental needs and rights. Parents have to play an important role to ensure all adolescents live, study, work and socialize in a supportive, healthy, and safe environment that protects their mental health and reduces their engagement in risk behaviours.

FOGSI (Federation of Obstetrics & Gynaecological Societies of India) is organizing an E-connect program for Parents and Teachers on Sunday, 23rd May 2021 from 9 AM to 2 PM. Through this webinar, parents and teachers will be able to learn preventable physical, sexual, mental, and social problems in adolescents of today and how to prevent the preventable adolescent health issues. The program will address the topic “Active and Positive Role of Parents and Teachers in Preventable Adolescent Healthcare”

This program can be attended on FACEBOOK and YOUTUBE live through the link.

Humble Invitation

FOGSI's Preventable Adolescent Health Community E-Connect Program for Parents and Teacher 23rd May 2021

Dear Parents, Teachers, Councilors, educationalist, media people, all NGOs and Doctors of all pathies.

We wish greetings from FOGSI(Federation of Obstetrics & Gynaecological Societies of India). We hope this mail finds you safe and well. We appreciate your support, inclusive actions and good work done to combat the COVID-19 Pandemic.It has disturbed the health and education of every adolescent as well. Parents and teachers are facing many questions regarding the adolescent issues.

FOGSI is committed to provide ethical women's healthcare services from adolescence, reproductive, menopause to geriatric age group. FOGSI endorses, advocates & supports reproductive health & rights of adolescents of our country.

We had a successful E-connect program for adolescent girls and boys on the occasion of International Youth Day on 10th August 2020, where 1,21,000 adolescents and their parents & teachers attended the program. We came up with a FAQ book with 400 questions asked by youths in the same program and their answers by experts in FOGSI. We are going to release the book and upload it on www.fogsi.org for free download. In that program the adolescent girls and boys asked us to organize one such workshop for their parents and teachers.

So, we have planned FOGSI's Preventable Adolescent Health Community E-Connect Program for Parents and Teacher on 23rd May 2021.

The idea behind this program is to talk with the parents and the teachers regarding the preventable physical, sexual, mental and social problems in adolescents of today. There will be active involvement and guidance from experts Gynaecologists, Psychiatrists, counsellors, teachers, parents, students, media person and many others as faculty.

Since adolescence and teenage is the most important age in shaping ideas and attitudes that will form the base of a healthy and happy adult. Adolescent health, especially preventive health and sex education can go a long way in keeping the nation clean and healthy. Through this conference, we aim that, every parent and teacher of our country should learn to prevent the preventable adolescent health issues.
